Women were elected to the school boards of Sea Cliff, L. I., and Rutherford, N. J., yesterday. In Sea Cliff the women voters lived automobiles in gotting men to the pions and elected Mrs. Minnie D. Van Nostrand, who got 234 votes, against 151 for Waiter P. Travis, candidate of the Square Deal party.

In Rutherford women couldn't vote, in Rutherford women couldn't vote, so the men put Mrs. F. S. Hopkins on the school board—the first of her sex thus school board—the first of her sex thus recognized in ten years.

Miss Katharine B. Davis, Commissioner of Correction, and her force started year-tarday to move the department of rounder the from 148 East Twentieth street, occupied since April 1, 1896, to new quarters on the twenty-fourth floor of the Municipal Building. Miss Davis expects that the ordeal will be over by sundown to-day. The "pass bureau" will remain in the old building until April 1, when it is expected arrangements will have been made with the Department of Public Charities to install the office on the pier at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street.
